An operetta, "The Berry Pickers," was given most creditably by the public schools in the opera house Wednesday afternoon and evening before large and appreciative audiences.

The Standard knitting factory here has done a most flattering business the past year, and it has been impossible for them to fill all orders. Additional new machinery will be installed next year to supply the increased demand. This evening President Paxman of Nephi will give an address in the First ward meetinghouse on dry land farming.

SEVEREST STORMS IN HISTORY. Missionary Farewell Social-Stables And Hay Burned-Wedding.

Special Correspondence. Lyman, Wyo. Nov. 26.—The severest storms ever known since the set-tlement of this place have occurred this month, and the weather at this time is extremely cold, although it has moderated some the last day or two.

MISSIONARY FAREWELL.

Last week the Lyman ward turned out to bid farewell to three of its members who are going to different counties to preach the gospel. They are Charles Jarman, who goes to England; Joseph Wall, Jr., going to Sweden, and Frank Clean, who goes to Denmark. They have the best wishes of the people of Lyman. When they get in the field Lyman ward will have 10 missionaries laboring in the mistonary field.
